

AD Report – September, 2018

August Fundraiser Update

- 21 people gathered at Patrick's house for the second DINNER WITH THE DIRECTOR (Austrian, of course), and the "Sound of Music" Sing-along
- $4,000 revenue for Chorale
- Food and staff contributed by Patrick and Greg

Fall Concert

- We are in good shape for the start of the new rehearsal season, beginning September 11.
- Very successful kick off party September 4 – thanks to Jen Ritsema and the Ashbys for organizing and hosting!
- The concert order and fall season schedule is attached.

New Members

- We have eleven new members this season – all very good singers. The Chorale's continued commitment to excellence is helping us draw the better singers in our community.
- There are eight women and three men. There's a possibility of one more audition this weekend. Next session, we should focus on attracting more men.
- Next audition date is Sunday, January 6, 2019

Christmas Concert

- Venue and collaboration with the bell choir of First Reformed Church are confirmed.
- Concert with intermission will run no longer one hour, forty-five minutes.
- Concert order is not yet complete, but will be in time for the next board meeting.

Sabbatical Update

- We have a signed Memorandum of Agreement with Dr. Brad Richmond to conduct the Chorale in the spring rehearsal/performance period.
- Dr. Richmond and I have already begun programming the spring concert. We will have the completed order in time for the November board meeting.
- Chorale responded enthusiastically last night to the announcement about Dr. Richmond conducting.

Artistic Committee

- Artistic Committee met on August 5 to help finalize the Fall concert and discuss some singer concerns, which have been addressed. Next meeting will be Sunday, September 30 at my house, 7:00-8:30 PM.

Respectfully submitted,
Patrick Coyle, Artistic Director
