

“Beethoven Meets the Beatles” Concert Survey Results

Holland Chorale

Spring 2022

Google drive spreadsheet:

<https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/18eODuVkfEsnwmh8cq9VzQmGPmOSWs gaFsSt1gDDhlOk/edit?usp=sharing>

Surveys completed: 149

Averages (out of 5):

The overall quality of this concert was: 4.79

Musically this concert was: 4.8

The quality of the choral singing was: 4.77

The quality of the instrumentalists was: 4.92

The quality of the soloists was: 4.71

The acoustics of the soloists was: 4.77

The overall quality of the venue was: 4.8

Was the welcome, ticketing and ushering process effective?

Overwhelmingly positive response to this question! Every survey agreed the ushering process was highly effective.

Ticket Type:

Paper	83
E-ticket	28
Gifts/Comps	3
No response	29

How did you hear about this concert?

Chorale Members, Dr. Patrick Coyle, Email, Facebook, Freedom Village, Church, Mailing List

Notable comments (positive and negative):

- Loved the encore
- Excellent selection of songs
- Would have liked printed words to the music
- There were too many “saved” seats (and sometimes whole rows) / Pews were not comfortable / Seating was hard to access
- Kristin Goodyke is a phenomenal pianist, magnificent, etc.,
- Names of all chorale members should be included in the program
- Enjoyed the familiarity of the music / lots of memories
- Masks got in the way of an even better concert
- Such creative programming / wonderful blend of Classical/Modern
- The balance was off between small groups and whole chorale
- Wonderful afternoon of fun and good music